

Are You Willing to Answer – the TOUGHEST QUESTION?

What can happen when a key person dies?

The problem:

When a business owner or key person passes away, the business often dies too!

What can happen when a key person dies:

- Everything that was certain – is now uncertain
- Sales are lost
- Customers lose confidence
- Bankers become hesitant
- Projects are stalled
- Employees are nervous
- Family members of owner(s) panic

The solution:

Nothing can replace the person, but insurance can provide cash to keep the company afloat...with proper planning, that is.

Shouldn't you – your business – your family – have this easy, inexpensive fix in place?

The loss of a business is too high a price to pay for lack of proper planning. Call Jerry Carnahan for complete details on this business-saving program.
